Extra Bonus Act of Kindness: As you know, Santa brings a special gift to all children. Some kids are super lucky and their parents can buy them more gifts for Christmas. But some families can't afford to go to a store and buy brand new presents for their kids. So they will only get the one present from Santa. Can you think of one gift you would like to give a child the same age as you if you could?

What is it? _____

If you are able to, it would be great if you purchased this gift and donated it to one of the amazing organizations who are giving gifts to children who need them. Check out our "Christmas Wish List for Santa" blog post for a listing of organizations who are helping. Or send us an email at worldchangingkids@gmail.com and we can send the list to you.
